

strengthening our faith

by rebuilding our heritage

November 2016

My dear parishioners,

It is a beautiful Sunday afternoon! The Redskins can't lose—they have a bye week. And in two days it will be election day! After all the negative comments, exaggerations, half-truths, and confusing statements, the people will speak. I voted early on Friday so now I'll be watching the results (which we will all know by the time you read this!). I pray for unity, that all will work together for peace and a more just society, with a willingness to reach out to the most vulnerable among us. Together, let's look at issues of life from conception to natural death, immigration, the economy, and other challenges facing the American people. As twenty-first century Catholics, we must be informed and educated. Why not start with the social teachings of the Church?

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

During this time of the year, we are reminded of our many blessings. As a parish family, we will gather on Thanksgiving Day, November 24 at 10am for a bilingual (English and Spanish) celebration of the Eucharist—the greatest act of thanksgiving for Christians. We are challenged by the words of Psalm 116, “What return can I make to the Lord for all that he gives to me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.” Let us together take the cup of salvation offered at such great cost, making just return to Him of our very selves! Reach deep! The offertory collection on Thanksgiving Day will benefit the many Social Justice & Community Services Ministries at St. Matthew's.

Seeing the Hopeful Signs

As the first Sunday of Advent quickly approaches, I pray that during the holy seasons of Advent and Christmas you will be free from discouragement and assured that Jesus is always by your side, showering you with deep and lasting hope. I want to share the following reflection with you.

A soldier hiding in a cave prayed that he would be saved. A spider weaved a web over the cave opening. As the enemy approached, searching the caves, they skipped his cave, thinking, because of the web, that no one had entered it in quite a while.

Given the challenges and circumstances constantly surrounding us—violence and abuse; war; oppression of the poor; suffering because of natural disasters; selfishness and carelessness in marriages, families, workplaces, and parishes—our first response may be that it is unrealistic to pray a prayer that is as trusting as the soldier's.

God comes in compassion. 'You are not alone. I am with you. I am Emmanuel. Nothing is impossible with me.'

Do we do our part? Do we look around and see the hopeful signs in the world? Rather than dwelling on and perpetuating negativity, do we recognize the good that is happening? How are we planting peace and good in place of evil? What are we doing to bring kindness and compassion wherever we are?
